

CULTIVATING EFFICIENCY, DELIVERING OPTIMAL RESULTS FOR OUR CLIENTS

ABOUT BILAW

Our team of legal experts boasts a wide spectrum of experiences that form the backbone of our success. With backgrounds ranging from corporate giants to esteemed litigators, our collective expertise allows us to navigate the most challenging legal landscapes.

Having led high-stakes litigation for over two decades, our team's experience includes representing clients in a plethora of civil cases, from lower courts to the prestigious federal court. Our impressive track record involves securing favorable outcomes for a diverse clientele, including multinational corporations, government agencies, private enterprises, and individuals seeking justice.

One of our esteemed founding partners brings a wealth of corporate insight garnered from a distinguished career spanning over three decades with a renowned multinational enterprise. Having been called to the bar in 2009, this seasoned professional played a pivotal role in establishing our firm in 2011. Their profound understanding of complex business dynamics bolsters our strategic approach to challenging legal matters, allowing us to provide comprehensive solutions to our clients.

Client satisfaction remains the cornerstone of our approach. We understand that every client's situation is unique, demanding tailored solutions to achieve their desired objectives.

Our client-centric ethos enables us to build lasting relationships, grounded in trust and mutual respect.

PRACTICE AREA

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)

Methods of resolving disputes outside of traditional court litigation. ADR provides parties with more flexible, cost-effective, and time-efficient ways to resolve conflicts.

Civil Litigation

A legal process of resolving disputes between individuals, companies, or organizations through the courts. It encompasses a wide range of legal issues, including contractual disputes, property disputes, personal injury claims, family law matters, and more. Civil litigation in Malaysia follows a specific legal procedure to determine the rights and obligations of the parties involved.

Corporate and Commercial Disputes

Conflicts or disagreements that arise in the business context between companies, organizations, or individuals involved in business transactions. These disputes can arise from various issues related to business dealings, contracts, partnerships, financial matters, intellectual property, employment, and more. Resolving such disputes is essential to maintain a healthy and stable business environment and protect the interests of all parties involved.

Construction Law

Governs the legal aspects and regulations related to the construction industry within the country. It encompasses a wide range of laws, rules, and regulations that apply to the planning, design, development, and execution of construction projects.

Defamation

A legal action taken by an individual or entity (the plaintiff) against another person or entity (the defendant) who has made false and damaging statements about the plaintiff. Defamation occurs when false statements are communicated to a third party, leading to harm to the reputation of the person or entity being targeted.

Employment Law

Governs the legal relationship between employers and employees. It encompasses various laws, regulations, and employment practices that protect the rights and interests of both employers and employees. The primary sources of employment law in Malaysia include the Employment Act 1955, the Industrial Relations Act 1967, and other relevant labor laws and regulations.

Merger and Acquisition (M&A)

The consolidation of companies or the acquisition of one company by another. It is a significant corporate strategy that allows businesses to expand, gain market share, achieve synergy, and diversify their operations. M&A transactions in Malaysia are subject to various legal, regulatory, and financial considerations.

Intellectual Property

The legal framework that protects the rights of creators and innovators regarding their intangible creations. It covers various forms of intellectual property, including patents, trademarks, copyrights, industrial designs, and trade secrets.

Real Estate and Conveyancing

The legal process of transferring ownership of real property from one party to another. This process is crucial for buying, selling, or transferring properties, and it ensures that the rights and interests of all parties involved are protected.

OUR PEOPLE

“The acronym BILAW perfectly encapsulates our commitment to being Brilliant In Litigation & Corporate Advocacy for Win, reflecting our unwavering determination to provide exceptional legal services tailored to suit the unique needs of our valued clients.”
